

High Point Bright Spots

Lighting and home accessories are clean and curvy
By ANDREA LILLO

SIMPLIFIED STYLES ARE ON THE AGENDA FOR HIGH POINT

introductions in the lighting and home accessories categories, as consumers continue to favor less cluttered and chaotic looks. In lighting, lamp bases become statement pieces with their curves, and some have a handcrafted element as well. Natural materials such as bamboo as well as crystals and other details remain important. The market will also see companies debuting new designer collections, categories—or themselves.

Arteriors Home will launch its line with designer Laura Kirar, while 26th & Soho will debut its couture lighting line at market. Nova will be one company expanding its wall decor category at market, using metals.

1 Exclusively from IMAX, the Voss bamboo wall mirror is perfect for the down-to-earth consumer and is naturally crafted from bamboo. imax-corp.com 2 An introduction in Pacific Coast Lighting's National Geographic Home brand, the African Leopard table lamp features a dark bronze finish and a faux suede shade. pacificcoastlighting.com

3 Lite Source's Vetta features a faceted crystal body, a silver accented neck decor and embossed base seated on a black marble platform. lite-source.com

4 In AF Lighting's Elements Series, the 7972-TL lamp is handcrafted of abalone shells, so no two lamps are alike. afighting.com 5 The D1714 table lamp in Dimond Lighting's Sparrow collection has a plum finish and a silken plum shade with silken bright cerise liner. dimondlighting.com 6 Couture lighting company 26th & Soho debuts at High Point, and its line features designer fabric shades, crystal accents, and other details. 26thandsoho.com

7 Arteriors Home will launch its first branded signature collection at market, a 90-piece portfolio of accent pieces and lighting created by designer Laura Kirar. arteriorshome.com 8 Nova expands its wall decor category at market, with three-dimensional metal artwork and wall sculptures, such as Colored Windows. novalamps.com

2

3

1

Continued on page 62

4

5

6

7

8